

1. Venue Entry

A "Ticket Holder" is a person who is in actual and legitimate possession of a Formula E Event ticket and, for the avoidance of doubt, includes a ticket purchaser and any other person who purchases, holds or uses a ticket.

By entering any venue ("Venue") where an ABB FIA Formula E World Championship event ("Event") is held, Ticket Holders consent to be bound by the following conditions of entry.

A "Ticket" is evidence of a personal revocable licence from Formula E which allows an individual to attend an Event.

All Ticket Holders will be subject to a security search at the point of entry to the Venue.

Permission to enter and remain within the Venue (notwithstanding the possession of any ticket or accreditation) is at the absolute discretion of Formula E.

If a Ticket Holder fails to comply with directions or instructions from appointed security or Formula E staff, refuses or rejects a security search, and/ or is deemed to constitute a source of danger, nuisance or annoyance to any other person, may be refused entry or removed from the Event (and may not be entitled to a refund).

At the point of entry and whilst inside the Venue, Ticket Holders are required to:

- comply at all times with directions or instructions from appointed security or Formula E staff;
- be solely responsible for all personal items;
- assume responsibility for any minors under the Ticket Holder's care;

Formula E reserves the right to refuse entry or to remove any Ticket Holder from the Venue in any instance. This includes, but not limited to, the following circumstances:

- no ticket, accreditation, damaged, defaced, forged or copied ticket or accreditation;
- any activity or behaviour related to marketing or advertising (including, for the avoidance of doubt, individual or group ambush marketing);
- sale of goods by unauthorised individuals or unauthorised ticket sales;
- behaviour that creates a dangerous environment, puts an individual's safety at risk, or interferes in any way with the orderly execution of an Event or disrupts the enjoyment of an Event;
- the presence of an individual which, in the reasonable opinion of Formula E, would be detrimental to or would compromise the safety and enjoyment of others within the Venue, including disorderly or intoxicated behaviour;
- entry to the Venue or specific accredited/ non-public area if unauthorised or illegally obtained;
- Ticket Holders found smoking in the Venue, unless within a dedicated smoking area;
- Ticket Holders who fail to provide valid and correct age identification when requested in relation to the sale or consumption of alcohol or any other age restricted substance.

2. Prohibited items

At any Event, any Ticket Holder found to be in possession of any of the following items will be refused entry to the Venue and may; have items seized, be removed from the Venue, and be reported to the relevant authorities:

- any item or material that, in the reasonable opinion of Formula E, is deemed to be dangerous, used for ambush marketing or political protest, or any items that may cause injury, damage, distress or disruption to the Event, other attendees and/ or personnel;
- weapons, replica weapons or items resembling weapons including, but not limited to, knives, firearms, blunt offensive objects/ batons and those with sharp ends, ammunition, replica ammunition or any item resembling ammunition;
- motorcycle helmet with visor;
- glass bottles, cans, thermoses or other blunt instruments;
- aerosol cans;
- explosives, chemicals or incendiary devices;
- fireworks, flares, and firecrackers;
- umbrellas and large flags/ banners (no larger than 60cm x 60cm);
- skateboards, scooters, other types of skates (including wheeled footwear);
- alcoholic beverages purchased outside the Venue;
- animals, with the exception of those trained to provide assistance or guide duties;
- illegal substances including drugs and needles (unless required for valid medical purposes);
- poles, flagpoles, sticks, large photography equipment and bats;
- drones or unmanned aerial devices;
- motorcycles, bicycles, or any other type of vehicle;

- any camping equipment, this includes but is not limited to: tents, parasols, camping chairs, BBQs or camping stoves.
- any clothing or items which, in the reasonable opinion of Formula E, may be used to impersonate or imitate any Formula E or Event staff.

The following items may be brought into the Venue but are not permitted for use in certain areas for the safety/ comfort of others:

- strollers are not permitted within grandstands or dedicated seating structures/ viewing platforms. Strollers are subject to a security search as per all other items. Strollers brought into the Venue must be left in an appropriate area as directed by security or event staff at the owners own risk;

- cameras (there may be certain restrictions in place for photography and recording);

3. Liability

Ticket Holders acknowledge that motorsports are dangerous activities and in attending any Formula E Event they accept the risks which may be inherent in attending such Event. Ticket Holders thereby agree to discharge Formula E and any of its agents from any and all related liability for personal injuries, health problems or death to the fullest extent permitted by the law.

Ticket Holders are responsible for their own safety and for the safety of any accompanying people under the age of sixteen (16). When attending an Event, Ticket Holders must comply with any safety regulations and announcements related to the Event as they may be published on the Event-specific page or Formula E website or as otherwise communicated by Formula E.

4. Photography

Non-commercial photography is permitted at the Venue provided the photographs are for personal use.

The use of any recording, data or image taken within the Venue without Formula E's consent for commercial gain, public advertisement, display or other purpose, except for private non-commercial purpose is prohibited. Any person who acts in contravention of this provision shall assign in writing all arising copyright and intellectual property rights to Formula E and its assignees.

5. Image Rights

By purchasing or holding a Ticket and/or by attending the relevant Event, each Ticket Holder (and in the case of a minor, as defined in the relevant jurisdiction, its parent or guardian) hereby:

- consents to the use of any still or moving image(s) taken at the Event (such image(s) to include any image of the Ticket Holder) for the purposes of or in connection with any publication, exhibition or broadcast (including any advertising or promotional literature, campaign or material) in any media worldwide (as approved by Formula E), by Formula E, its group companies, FIA or any third party approved by Formula E;
- waives its personality rights to the extent necessary to permit such use;
- unconditionally and irrevocably constitutes and appoints Formula E as its attorney to do, perform and execute all things and documents as may be necessary or desirable to transfer or assign any rights in or to such still or moving images, referred to in the first bullet point above, to give effect to the same.

CCTV will be in operation at all Formula E Events, please refer to the Event-specific page on the Formula E website site for further information.
